Write a Query for the following

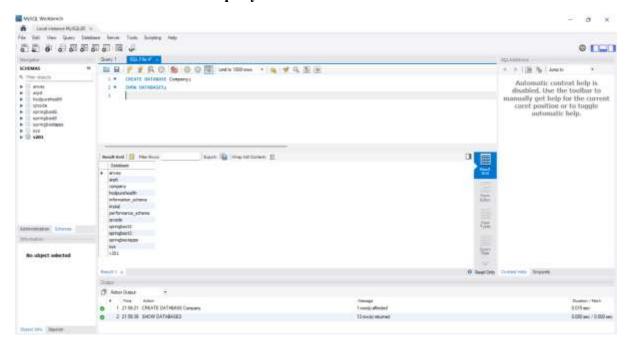

- 1. Write a query to create a database named as Company.
- 2. Write a query to view all databases.
- 3. Write a query to create a table with following Schema.

Table name: employee

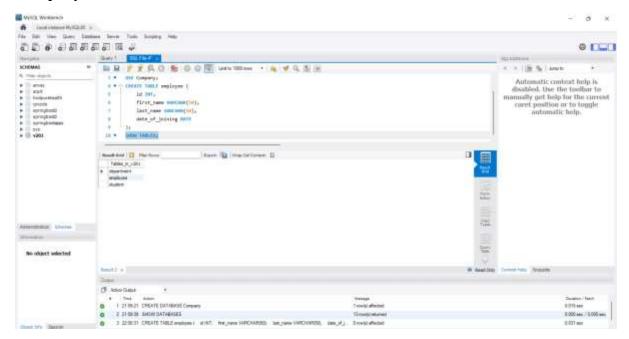

Column Name	Datatype
id	int
first_name	varchar(50)
last_name	varchar(50)
date_of_joining	date

- 4. Write a query to view all tables in the database Company.
- 5. Write a query to add a column salary with datatype float on the existing table employee.
- 6. Write a query to drop a column date_of_joining from the existing table employee.
- 7. Write a query to add primary key to column id on existing table employee.

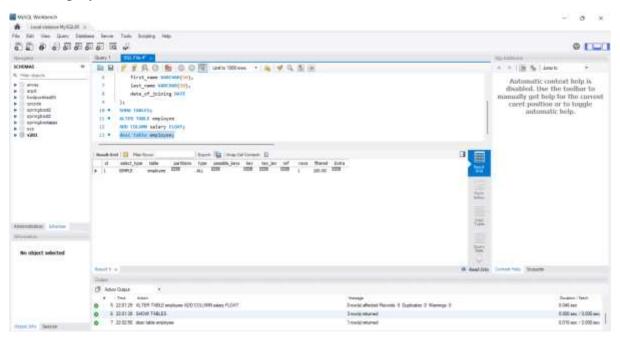

Create a database named Company & View all databases:

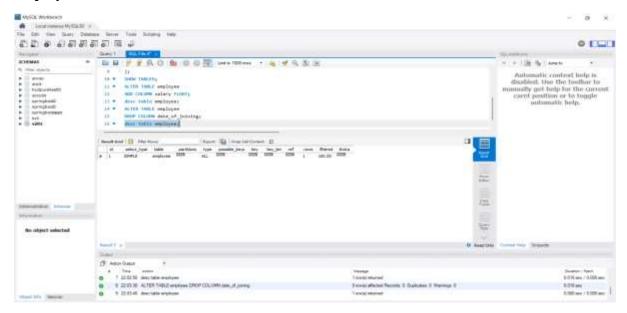

Create a table named employee with the specified schema & View all tables in the Company database:

Add a column salary with datatype FLOAT to the existing employee table & describe table employee:

Drop the column date_of_joining from the existing employee table & describe table employee:

Add a primary key to the column id on the existing employee table & describe table employee:

